Galatians 1:1-2ANTIQUITY has nothing to show more notable in its kind, or more precious, than this letter of Paul to the Churches of Galatia. It takes us back, in some respects nearer than any other document we possess, to the beginnings of Christian theology and the Christian Church.

Galatians 1 Expositor's Bible Commentary

The dense and dramatic argument of Galatians excites and baffles by turns. Sometimes perceived as a flamboyant younger sister of the more settled and reflective letter to Rome, this epistle has provoked endless controversy at all levels, from details of exegesis to flights of systematic theology.

Biblical Commentary (Bible study) Galatians 5:1, 13-25. EXEGESIS: THE CONTEXT: Paul established the church in Galatia (4:13-14), but had moved on. Then he received word that certain Jewish-Christians were trying to persuade Galatian Christians to observe Jewish laws and rituals, including circumcision (5:2-12; 6:12-13) and the observance of “days, months, seasons, and years” (4:10).

Galatians 5:1, 13-25 - Sermon Writer

Galatians 6:1 deals with restoration and this section (Galatians 6:2-5) with prevention. We can bear by praying and perhaps counseling together. "Human friendship, in which we bear one another"s burdens, is part of the purpose of God for his people.

Biblical Commentary (Bible study) Galatians 4:4-7 EXEGESIS: THE CONTEXT: Whereas many of Paul's letters were written to churches in a particular city, such as Rome or Corinth, this letter was written to "the assemblies of Galatia"—a region in the central part of what we know today as Turkey.

Galatians 4:4-7 - Sermon Writer

The second outline is developed around a key verse in Galatians (Gal. 5:1). Paul declares, "For freedom Christ has set us free; standfast therefore, and do not submit to a yoke of slavery." This verse is a capsule summary of the essential message of Galatians. OUTLINE OF GALATIANS - A BOOK OF CONTRASTS

Galatians is a virile statement of the central truths of Christianity. If we as a people can make these truths and this vigor a part of our thinking and our willing, the bones of our faith will be strong and not brittle, and the emotional force of our life in Christ will not be lukewarm but ardent and intense and undivided.

Galatians 3:20. Now a mediator is not a mediator of one A mediator supposes two parties he stands between, and these at a distance from, or disagreeing with each other; where there is but one party, there can be no need of, nor any reason for, a mediator; so Christ is the Mediator between God and men, the daysman, (Job 9:33) , that lays his hands upon them both; and Moses, he was the mediator ...
